

Opportunities available at the Global Tuberculosis Institute

Staff Nurse for the Global Tuberculosis Institute's Lattimore Clinic will skillfully administer total patient care based on the individual needs of persons with tuberculosis and their families including health status assessments, administration of medication and therapies and patient education. For more information, please see the job posting.

Advanced Practice Nurse for the Global Tuberculosis Institute's Lattimore Clinic and Hudson County Chest Clinic. We are seeking a part-time Advanced Practice Nurse who will be responsible for care of pediatric and adolescent patients with TB and will work under the direction of pediatric infectious disease physicians. For more information, please see the job posting.

Physician Specialist will provide per diem coverage at the Global Tuberculosis Institute's Lattimore Clinic or satellite clinics with at least one 4-hour shift per week or one 8-hour shift alternate weeks providing care for patients and their contacts. For more information please contact Rajita Bhavaraju at bhavarr@rutgers.edu.