WORLD TB DAY UPDATE

Wednesday, March 21, 2012

8:00AM - 1:00PM

CME/CNE CERTIFIED ACTIVITY

Course Location

The Friends Center, Rufus Jones Room
1501 Cherry Street, 1st Floor, Philadelphia, PA

Jointly Sponsored By

The City of Philadelphia Department of Public Health Tuberculosis Control Program, Charles P. Felton National TB Center, New Jersey Medical School Global Tuberculosis Institute, and UMDNJ-Center for Continuing and Outreach Education

In collaboration with

Drexel University School of Public Health

This activity is supported by an educational grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Division of Tuberculosis Elimination

The New Jersey Medical School Global Tuberculosis Institute is the Tuberculosis Regional Training and Medical Consultation Center for the Northeastern United States.

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OVERALL GOAL

The purpose of this half-day course is to provide TB program leaders, clinicians, and field workers with updated information that they can apply in their daily work for the prevention and control of TB. Topics will include current trends in Philadelphia, new diagnostics and treatment regimens, policies and protocols for pediatric TB, working with foreign-born patients, contact investigations, and program coordination and service integration (PCSI). The format includes lectures with slides, panel discussion, and questions and answers following each speaker.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This course is designed for clinicians, infection control practitioners, managers, and front line staff who are dealing with TB in Philadelphia and surrounding counties.

WHY COURSE IS NEEDED

Progress in the elimination of TB requires current knowledge of TB rates, populations at risk, and interventions that are successful. All partners working to control TB in the greater Philadelphia metropolitan area can benefit from new information and discussion with colleagues about its application in TB control programs in their workplaces.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course participants will be able to:
